

Avi Amesbury
Open studio morning tea
Saturday 9 November at 10:00am
Bundaberg, 4670

Avi Amesbury has been supported by Regional Arts Development Fund (RADF) Bundaberg Regional Council and the Visual Arts Market Development Fund to attend the International Academy of Ceramics Congress and General Assembly in Portugal in September, 2024. As a result of attending the Congress Avi will open her studio and host a networking morning tea and workshop to share her knowledge and expertise. With recommendations from her networks of key people and organisations, Avi will share her industry knowledge to help creatives make connections and develop artistic or arts administration pathways.

The event is informal and you are welcome to join at any time during the morning. Please RSVP to avi@aviamesbury.com.au with 'Open Studio Morning Tea' in the subject line. You will then be sent the studio address. Due to the size of the studio, places are limited.

10am	Welcome and open studio
10.30am	Artist talk – presentation of ceramics practice
11am	Creative pathways – sharing networks
11.30am	Q+A
12.30pm	Open studio closes

W: aviamesbury.com.au

Insta: www.instagram.com/avi.amesbury

FB: www.facebook.com/AviAmesburyCeramics

Queensland
Government

The Regional Arts Development Fund (RADF) is a partnership between the Queensland Government and Bundaberg Regional Council to support local arts and culture in regional Queensland.

Queensland
Government

The project is supported by the Queensland Government through Arts Queensland